KEY A.

1. Have you heard the Ger-man Ea-gle scream, O'er the world so vaunt-ing-ly?
2. Have you heard they'll come in bat-tle line? Then we'll test their bra-ve-ry,
3. If they'd know why Bri-tors rule the waves, If they'd solve the mys-te-ry,

Do you know the migh-ty Kai-ser's dream, Why he speaks so taunt-ing-ly?
 Do you know they'd like to sweep the brine, Bind us lads in sla-ve-ry?
 If they know the deeds of Bri-tain's Braves, Let them read their his-to-ry,

Have you heard he built a migh-ty fleet, Ru-ler of the world he'd be;
 They im-a-gine bat-tle-ships in air, Sub-ma-rines and guns will do,
 Let them search the bot-tom of the seas, Where their bat-ter'd hulks now lie,

He im-a-gines he can break or-bend, The men who've been and ev-er will be
 But we know 'twas Bri-tish Hearts of Oak, In ev-'ry bat-tle pull'd us safe-ly Let them build their pu-ny ships of war, We build men pre-pard to do or free. But one thing we pos - sess they for - through, For one thing we pos - sess they for - die, There's one thing we pos - sess they for -

met, of - ten met, of - ten met.
 met, of - ten met, of - ten met.
 met, of - ten met, of - ten met.

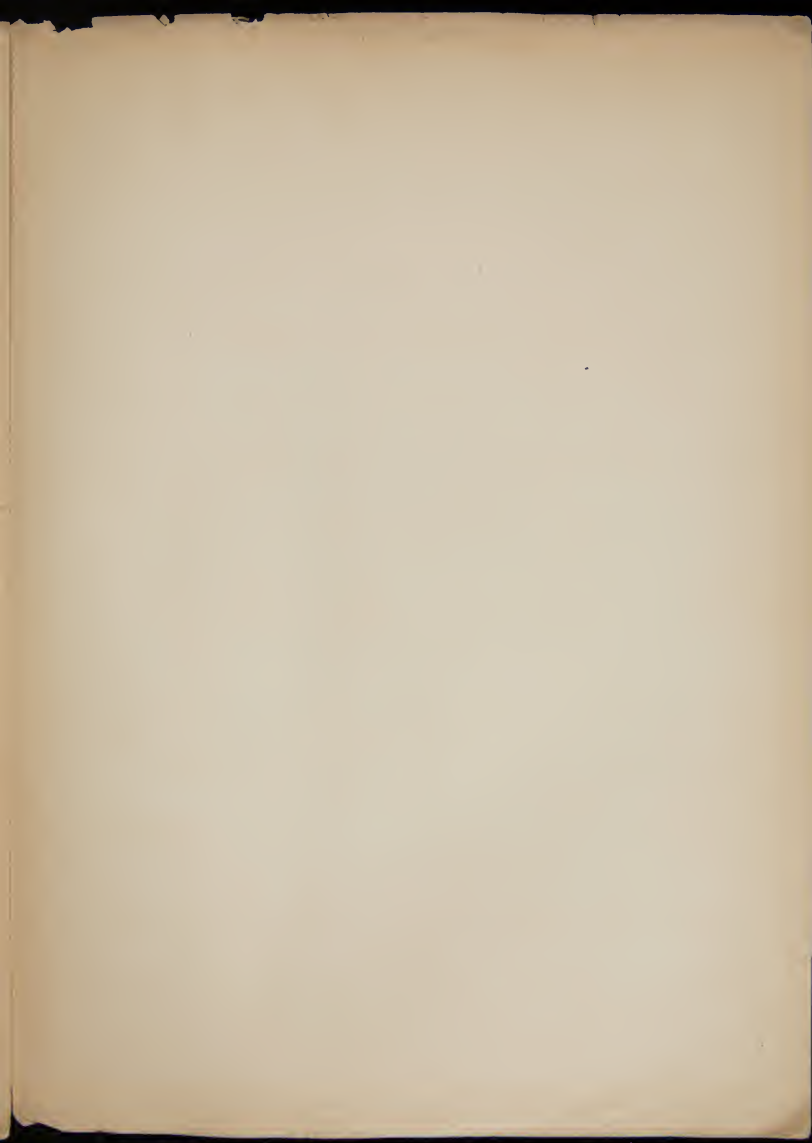

CHORUS.

Sons of the sea all Bri-tish born,

Sail - ing ev - 'ry o - cean, laugh - ing foes to scorn,

They may build their ships my lads, and think they know the game, But they can't build Boys of the Bull-dog Breed, Who made old Eng-land's name. name.
